One part of his discourse will refer to the iniquities of certain Wall Street syndicates, uncovered by the confessions of Thomas G. Lawson in "Everybody's Magazine." Another part will be a ventilarecent banquet of the Liquor Dealers' Association of Virginia.

Library Open at Night.

Beginning to-night the State Library will be kept open until 10 P. M. for the next six months every day except Sunday. The experiment of opening the library at night was begun last spring, and proved very popular. Now that the cooler weather is expected, it is anticipated that the attendance at the library will be greater than ever.

With the inauguration of the traveling library system, the demand for such libraries has already exceeded the means available for the purpose. A dozen requests for the establishment of traveling libraries in various parts of the State have been received. Librarian Kennedy stated yesterday that there were not sufficient books to supply their demand, and suggested that if the people would donate the books they had read and did not need, such volume would go a long way toward extending the usefulness of the system.

ters. No applications will be received for this examination except by L. H. Fisher, secretary of the Fourth Division Examining Board, Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., prior to the evening of October 17th.

A Revival to Begin.

Place Methodist Church to-morrow morning, preparatory to the revival services to be conducted during the week. A full attendance of the church membership is earnestly desired at both the Sunday services. The meeting will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Betty, preaching each night at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, Fulton, when Mrs.
Annie Greening became the bride of Mr.
Samuel Borrum, both of Manchester, Va.
After the ceremony the bridal couple left for Manchester, where they will reside.

Mr. Rankin Greatly Improved.

Leland Rankin, who has been critically ill for several weeks past, was proved, and was allowed to sit up for a while. Mr. Rankin had quite a severe attack of pneumonia and then typhoid fever.

The case of Adam Glenn, negro, charged with cutting James Baker, was called velopments in the condition of the Hospital.

at public auction the dwelling No. 3 East Charity Street for the sum of $400. The sale was made at the instance of the was the purchaser of the property.

Liquor Case Continued.

Walter Baker, colored, was charged in the Police Court yesterday with selling liquor on various Sundays. The report was made by Officer Amos, and the case went over to the 6th of October.

"The Hague Tribune."

At the Unitarian Church to-morrow the pastor, Rev. John C. Robinson, will preach upon the subject, "The Hague Tribune; Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

Two Small Cases.

Court yesterday for being drunk on a street and Ella Barham was assessed a fine of $1.00 for being disorderly on the street.

Shot With Assault.

city hall yesterday by Justice John on a charge of attempting to criminally assault Foster, colored.

Theatres

This Week.

Dark.

How He Won

James Boyle, of "A Desperate Man," with open arms, at the theater last night for a stay of a week, this story of the attraction:
"While in Columbus, Ohio, with the play last season, I met two brothers of the Biddle boys, who lived there. The circumstances of this meeting was somewhat peculiar. One of the men asked me for the business manager, I said that I held that position wherever he informed me that they were the brothers and sister of the Biddle boys.

"I want to ask you a favor, sir," he continued, "live here, and while you are very short, but I want to ask you prevent the play from being taken out of here. I want to see to it that you if you will please to display these pictures and to continue the original play cases." The Biddle boys, at the time clothes were taken and last capture of the Biddle boys and other relics of the affair. I presented and had the cases removed, the remainder of the engagement.

Lovers of the vaudeville, with good reason, can only find a complete rest in the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is also without equal in treating and curing all coughs, colds, and other ailments.

The company will be seen at the theater this afternoon and again tonight, when the engagement comes to an end.

CURED OF LAME BACK AFTER 5 YEARS OF SUFFERING.
I have been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete cure in the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is also without
equal in treating and curing all
coughs, colds, and other ailments.

that the committee with which they de-

GOVERNOR OF ARZILA MURDERED

(By Associated Press.)
TANGIER, MOROCCO, September 30.— The governor of Arzila, who was the father-in-law of the former war minister,

El Menebhi, has been murdered at Arzila by people of the surrounding tribes.

The murder was committed out of revenge for the action of the governor in imprisoning members of tribes. The murderers released the prisoners at Arzila, and killed many of the townspeople.

Great alarm prevails at Arzila and the authorities there have appealed to Mohammed El Torres, the representative at Tangiar of the Sultan, to send them assistance.

MURDER CASE GOES OVER.

That of William Booker Continued.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTERFIELD, VA., Sept. 30.—The trial of William Booker for the murder of Eddie Patterson, both colored, has been continued until the second day of the November term of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield. The case was set for trial to-day but the plaintiff's attorney, Mr.
Harry M. Smith, of Richmond, asked a continuance on account of the illness of Booker's mother and the death of her infant, which had prevented the necessary arrangements and preparation for the trial between the attorney and his clients.

The cases of Dick Brown, Walter Rose and William Coleman, under indictment for being accessory to the same murder, were in consequence of the postponement of Booker's trial, continued also, till the next term. Brown was bailed to-day on a bond of $500 with Dr. S. D. Drewry as surety.

Two young white men, Daniel Lowe and Peter Navine, were tried in the Circuit Court yesterday for house-breaking and larceny, and given twelve months each in the county jail. The young men are northerners, said to be from New York, and were indicted at the beginning of the present term for breaking into the store of Mr. H. J. Vaughan, some time in June, and carrying off goods, mostly cabbages.

A special case of the Commonwealth against Policeman P. L. Watts for misdemeanor, will be heard on Monday, which will about conclude the criminal case for this term of court and on Tuesday it is supposed to arrange the docket for the trial of civil cases, several railroad suits being among those to come on trial.

A mortgage of the Norfolk and Westchester Railway Company to the Guaranty Trust Company, providing for the issue of bonds to the extent of $35,000,000 has been admitted to record in the clerk's office. The document contains about thirty thousand words.

Ricks, Miss Lora Burgess and Mrs.
Letcher English.

ing place for the next annual convention.
Most of the delegates left for their homes on the night trains.

Long Trial Not Concluded.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., September 30.—The trial of Henry Long for the murder of Howell Cleaton in Portsmouth, was not concluded to-day as expected. An unusually prolonged argument over the instructions carried the case over until tomorrow, and it is likely to go to the jury to-morrow afternoon.

Fine Horse Burned in Stable.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Sept. 30.—The stable house owned by Mrs. A. G. Seagrave, of this place, was destroyed by fire about noon to-day. One large bay horse, valued at $175, together with a number of other valuable articles, were lost. The fire is supposed to have originated from a lighted cigarette dropped by some one.

The loss is about $700; insurance not known.

Severe Wind-Storm.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATHAM, VA., Sept. 30.—News has reached this place of a terrific wind storm in the Southern part of Pittsylvania.

ed. The wind was accompanied with hail and heavy rain, and a downpour, lace, chief engineer of the Panama Canal, Canal" at a banquet given here tonight by four hundred members of the

BEATEN AND THEN THROWN OVERBOARD

Brutal Crime Said to Have Been Committed Aboard a Dredge.

NORFOLK, VA., September 30.—John Stewart and Thomas Lattimore were arrested at Pinners Point to-day by Coroner Officer Burgess and lodged in the Portsmouth Jail, charged with having beaten their way from Eastern Shore, Va., to Pinners Point.

Before being remanded to jail by Justice Rodman, the prisoners declared that a murder had recently been committed aboard an oyster dredge, cruising in Tangiar Sound. When one of the men misunderstood an order issued by the captain of the vessel, the seaman was set upon by the skipper, Stewart and Lattimore declared, and beaten into insensibility, after which his body was thrown overboard. Justice Rodman, upon receiving this information, communicated at once with United States Commissioner Bowden to investigate the report. Commissioner Bowden requested that the two informants be held as witnesses.

The authorities did not deem it wise to give out the name of the captain, who is said to have committed the brutal crime, fearing that he might take advantage of the publicity and make his escape. The Maryland authorities were telegraphed to be on the lookout for the dredge and arrest the commander on his arrival at any Maryland port.

REPUBLICANS GIVE UP HOPE

No Likelihood That They Will Get Electoral Votes of West Virginia.

CORNWELL WILL BE ELECTED

Significant Republican Admission Gives Democratic Look to Indiana.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 30.—It is said the Republicans have about concluded that it is useless to hope to carry West Virginia for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. They believe the Legislature will be safely Republican, but many of the national leaders who are in close touch with the situation in that State admit privately that Parker and Davis will capture the electoral vote. It is only within the past ten days or less that the Republicans have awakened to the danger in West Virginia. Therefore they had claimed the State by from 25,000 to 30,000 majority. But since they have got closer to the situation they have learned much. There is not the slightest doubt that the best informed leaders, including Senator Scott himself, would be surprised if the State went Republican at all.

Will Elect Cornwell.

There is little ground for the hope that the Legislature will be Democratic.
There is good reason to believe that Senator Cornwell will be elected to the governorship. It is said the Republicans admit that the chances are in favor of the defeat of the Republican candidate.
A West Virginia Republican of prominence said here a day or two ago he did not doubt that Cornwell would be elected and it had been realized that a long he would prove. It has been demonstrated that he is the most unpopular man in the party in some respects, and his record as Secretary of State and his espousal of various views, which have proved extremely unpopular with the mass of the voters, make his defeat not unlikely.

"West Virginia is no longer in the doubtful column," said State Senator Campbell, secretary of the West Virginia Democratic State Central Committee, at the headquarters of the National Congressional Committee to-day. "There is no doubt of the election of Cornwell." The seven electoral votes of the State will be cast for Parker and Davis as surely as election day come, and three of the five members of Congress will be Democrats. The defeat of Dayton in the Second District is assured. He has seen the handwriting on the wall. There is no doubt of the non-proof of a Federal judgeship. But old Judge Jackson refuses to give up his place on the bench, and Dayton cannot get a place of the kind until the Judge retires. Dayton will be retired after the fourth of next March.

The Gaines-Edwards imbroglio in this State is only half over. The surface has been cleared, but the mud is still showing. Mr. B. Davenport, the Democratic nominee, will be elected by a safe majority. Davenport, by the way, is a grand-nephew of Henry Clay.

As evidence of the fact that the Republicans are scared, Senator Elkins has within the past few days made a show of great activity in West Virginia, visiting county chairmen, and apparently trying to put some "snap" into the campaign.
His peculiar brand of that article has smoothed the way to Republican victory in the State before. Indeed, the Republican campaign fund has settled every election in West Virginia for years—since 1884, at least.

Indiana May be Democratic

It is regarded as a very significant fact that Secretary Shaw, on his return here a day or two ago, gave out a statement of the way in which Roosevelt would be elected, and in the list of States which would go Republican did not include West Virginia or New York. But he did include Indiana, which Tom Taggart says every day is safely Democratic.

I saw a letter to-day, written from Indiana by a Republican of that State, widely known by reputation in every State of the Union, in which he expressed grave doubts as to the ability of the Republicans to carry Indiana this year.
He said that the attitude of the Democrats towards Mr. Roosevelt was very threatening, and that the Democrats had succeeded in organizing a number of Workingmen's clubs, with large membership. The cost of filling the dinner pail this year, he said, is having a very serious effect upon the Republican
